

Descendants of Wiley Carew McSwain

Generation 1

1. Wiley Carew McSwain-1^[1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6] was born on 03 Jul 1877 in Ethel, Arkansas, Arkansas^[2, 3, 5, 6, 7, 8]. He died on 22 Jan 1949 in Pulaski County, Arkansas^[7, 9]. He married Susan Frances Lowrey on 27 Nov 1902 in DeWitt, Arkansas, Arkansas, by Rev Cannon^[10], daughter of John Tilley Lowrey and Sarah Frances Pentecost. She was born on 04 May 1885 in Wewoka, Indian Territory^[3, 10, 11, 12]. She died on 12 Mar 1925 in the home, Ethel, Arkansas, Arkansas^[1, 13].

Notes for Wiley Carew McSwain:

Wiley Carew always went by the name Carew.

He had been sick some time before he died. An autopsy discovered cancer and it is presumed that was the cause of death.

-- Edith Marie McSwain Jenkins

In the 1900 Arkansas County, Arkansas, census, Wiley's parents have died and he is head of the household, with his sister Callie and brothers Matthew and James living with him. His father George B died only two months before the 1900 census.

A Russell McSwain, age 21, is a boarder in the household of John and Julia Cook 4 houses down from Wiley and his siblings. It is not clear where this Russell came from or how he is kin to them. Like the others he was born in Arkansas, and both his parents were born in North Carolina. I have information on this Russell and his family from later records, also, but have been unable (as of September 2007) to find where they fit with the rest of the McSwains in North Carolina or Arkansas. This Russell is listed in later censuses as Russell a McSwain, and had a son named Russell also.

In 1910, Wiley Carew is married to Susie Lowery. The L in here entry Susie L appears to stand for her maiden name, since we know her middle name was Frances. Carew's brother Matt is still living with the family. Both he and Carew are working in farm labor for other farms.

Notes for Susan Frances Lowrey:

Different public and family sources have the name spelled differently. In her formal listing of family information, Bertie Lois Dumond McSwain spelled the name Lowrey. But in her letters and in spelling it orally in a family discussion, she spelled it Lowry.

In the Essex Funeral Home registry, there is a listing for a T W Lowrey (Book VI, 85). This is Susie's brother Tilley Wirt Lowrey. We find the family name spelled that way in Wirt's usage and that of his son, Tilley Wirt Lowrey, Jr.

Susie Frances Lowry's grandson Roger Louis McSwain, son of Louis Wirt McSwain, found that Susie's family name was spelled Lowrey on his father's birth certificate.

The Arkansas Marriage Index, 1933-1939, records the marriage of Louis McSwain to Bernice Williams (Vol 2, Certificate 00347, page 0835); the license was issued 19 September 1939 in Arkansas County. The record shows that the actual wedding ceremony was conducted 24 October 1939.

Louis' place of residence at the time of death was St. Charles, Arkansas County, Arkansas, according to the Social Security Death Index. Louis' son Roger informs me that his father died in the St Vincent Infirmary, Little Rock, Pulaski County, Arkansas. Causes of death were pneumonia, chronic obstructive lung disease and colitis.

Notes for Bernice Edward Williams:

"Bernice" is pronounced BURN-iss.

Bernice's son Roger Louis informs us that her middle name was Edward. Bernice died in Memphis, Tennessee, where she had been living with Louis and Nancy, before being hospitalized due to an injury then moving to a rest home. The Social Security Death Index still showed her residential address as St. Charles, Arkansas.

I have not seen Bernice's published obituary. A summary of her obituary in the Arkansas Democrat-Gazette was transcribed on RootsWeb. Note that this obit reports her death was in St Charles, Arkansas, while her son Roger tells me she died in Memphis, Tennessee. Her longtime residence was St Charles.

"I went to get my mother for Christmas 1999. ... She lived with us until sometime in 2001, when she fell, hit her head, and never seemed the same. She was admitted to the hospital and later transferred to a nursing home until her death in February 2002."

He was born on 21 Jul 1948 in Grady County Clinic, Chickasha, Grady, Oklahoma^[48].

Notes for Orville Boyd Jenkins:

Since 1977, friends have called me Obiwan. This got started with a young co-worker, because we were both Sci Fi (and Star Wars) fans. I commonly go by Orville Boyd. But this is hard for people to get out, so many call me Orville.

A few friends prefer to call me Boyd, which I also like. I am named Boyd after my Uncle Russell Boyd and like that association. The Boyd family name is an honorable Scottish name, also known as Bute or Buit, a sub-sept of the Stewart clan, which produced the Royal Stewarts of Scotland and England. The name is from the word in the Scots (Northern Anglian) language, originally from medieval French, that also has come into the English language as "butte."

My Kenyan friends and colleagues normally just call me by my initials: OBJ. In my international radio broadcasting in Kenya, I used the radio name O. B. Jay.

Children of Edith Marie McSwain and Orville Boyd Jenkins are:

- i. Gareth Boyd Jenkins, B: 02 May 1977 in Nairobi Hospital, Nairobi, Kenya^[48], M: Lesli Mari Ortiz, 02 Jun 2007 in Fielder Road Baptist Church, Arlington, Tarrant, Texas^[48].

There is a discrepancy in the death date from two sources. Larry's gravestone in Mt Pleasant Cemetery, Ethel, Arkansas, gives a date of 7 Jun 1987. The date reported in the Social Security Death Index, however, is 6 July, 30 days later. You would think the date on the grave was correct, but records are supposed to be accurate on official registers like Social Security. I later discovered that the online SSDI info differed from the transcript in the earlier Disk set. The date there was the same as that on the gravestone.

The date in June has also been confirmed by his nephew Russell Irvin McSwain in personal email correspondence. Russ attended Larry's military funeral.

Social Security reports DeWitt, Arkansas, as the place of residence at death.

For months before this, the kids had been using Jenkins as their name in informal situations allowing this.
